Manawa Clinic Earns State Recognition

ThedaCare Staff Achieves 90% Childhood Vaccination Rate

ThedaCare announces ThedaCare Physicians-Manawa recently received the 2018 BigShots award from the Wisconsin Department of Health Services (DHS). The award is presented annually to health care providers who vaccinate 90 percent or more of their young patients, based on immunization data collected by DHS. This is the second year in a row ThedaCare Physicians-Manawa has received this award.

ThedaCare Physicians-Manawa joins ThedaCare Physicians-Darboy among the 50 clinics statewide recognized for their efforts to promote vaccinations for young children in 2018. "Childhood vaccinations are critical to protecting our children and everyone around them from diseases like measles, mumps, rubella, and pertussis," said State Health Officer Karen McKeown in 2017.

"We are very proud of the efforts of nurse practitioner Tina Bettin and her team of medical assistants at ThedaCare Physicians-Manawa for teaching the importance of childhood immunizations and achieving a 90 percent vaccination rate," said Cheryl Seelig, practice administrator for the ThedaCare clinic group in the New London area, which includes ThedaCare Physicians-Manawa. "Promoting childhood immunization is directly in line with the ThedaCare mission to improve the health of the communities we serve. Making sure our children are immunized is an important step in achieving that mission," Seelig added.

Bill Schmidt, vice president of clinical access at ThedaCare Medical Center-New London, added his congratulations to Bettin's and her team: "This is great work by Tina and her team!"

Wisconsin's DHS maintains up-to-date records of immunization for all children in the state, as reported by health-care providers. Parents can find out which vaccinations their children need and at what ages on the Wisconsin Immunization Program webpage. They also can keep track of the shots their children have had, and shots they may still need, through the Wisconsin Immunization Registry.

For more than 100 years, ThedaCare® has been committed to finding a better way to deliver serious and complex healthcare to patients throughout Northeast Wisconsin. The organization serves over 200,000 patients annually and employs more than 6,700 healthcare professionals throughout the region. ThedaCare has seven hospitals located in Appleton, Neenah, Berlin, Waupaca, Shawano, New London and Wild Rose, as well as 31 clinics in nine counties and the ThedaCare Regional Cancer Center in Appleton. ThedaCare is the first in Wisconsin to be a Mayo Clinic Care Network Member, giving our specialists the ability to consult with Mayo Clinic experts on a patient's care. ThedaCare is a non-profit healthcare organization with a level II trauma center, comprehensive cancer treatment, stroke and cardiac programs as well as a foundation dedicated to community service. For more information, visit www.thedacare.org or follow ThedaCare on Facebook and Twitter.

Rotary Club Plants Trees

Rotary International designated 2018 as the Year of the Trees. All Rotary clubs are encouraged to plant trees in their communities. Rotary Club of Clintonville did just that on Wednesday, May 23, 2018.

Question: How long does it take eight Rotary volunteers to plant 15 trees? Answer: about 45 minutes! This hard working group got instructions from Clintonville Park and Rec Director Justin McAuly at 3:30 Wednesday afternoon at Bucholtz Park and by 4:15 they were posing for pictures. According to McAuly, projects like this help the city of Clintonville maintain its status as a Tree City USA. Helping with the project (first photo, l-r) are Emilee Acevedo, Gay Acevedo, Mike Papendorf, Mandy Kriesel, Lois Bressette, Ann Fuge, Kittrick Thoun and Joey Thoun. Photo: Jeff Hoffman

Back Up Your Cellphone

Summer in Wisconsin means more time outdoors and possibly more risk for your smartphone getting lost or damaged in the elements. With all the photos, videos, apps and other information we have on our phones today, it is important to backup your device to make sure the content significant to you never gets lost if something happens to your device.

Here are some options from Cellcom to make sure you never lose something important to you:

- To create a backup with iCloud on iOS, visit the Settings menu and tap iCloud > Backup and toggle iCloud Backup on. This will back up your device daily when your device is connected to Wi-Fi, connected to a power source and the screen is locked.

- With iOS you can also create a backup through iTunes by plugging your device into the computer and opening the latest version of iTunes. Once the phone is connected, you simply select backup from the file menu.

Note that if iCloud back up is enabled, the phone will not back up to iTunes.

- On your Android device download the Google Drive app from the Google Play Store. Once you're logged in with your default Gmail account, visit the settings menu and select Backup & Reset and then Backup My Data.

- You can back up photos on your Android or iOS device using Google Photos. Simply download Google Photos from the application market and the first time you go through set up turn the Backup and Sync slider on. The default is to upload high quality photos (unlimited storage) over Wi-Fi only. We recommend sticking to these settings, but you can change them in the settings menu at any time.

For step-by-step details and how-to videos on how to back up and restore your device using any of these methods, you can visit cellcom.com/backup. If you need assistance, visit a local Cellcom store or contact us.

Lions Sponsored Senior Banquet

A Night for 2018 Clintonville High School Graduates

The program for the evening also included presentation by high school principal Lance Bagstad of the CHS Outstanding Educator award to English teacher Ryan Conratt.

The Clintonville Lions have been hosting an annual senior class recognition meal since the mid 1950s. For many years it was a breakfast for students and staff held at Christus Lutheran Church. In more recent years, though, it has been a dinner in the high school commons at a time that allowed also for family and friends to attend.

This year's banquet had an attendance of over 350. Those attending enjoyed a meal of chicken marsala, tenderloin tips, mashed potatoes, corn, coleslaw, and roll -- all catered by Mathew's Supper Club. Water was provided by Fox Communities Credit Union.

Master of Ceremonies for the evening was Clintonville Lions First Vice President Bob Didier. Addressing the class with a very motivational message was the director of the Wisconsin Lions Camp Andrea Yenter. Closing remarks were by class president Melany Lorge.

Spring Cruise Car Show

The Clintonville Spring Cruise Car Show is affiliated with the Northeast Wisconsin Beat the Heat Corporation, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization for the purpose of providing education and guidance to youth through involvement with members of the law enforcement community.

"A Youth Drug, Alcohol, Safe Driving and Mentoring Educational Program"

Funds earned by the Spring Cruise Car Show are used to provide post-secondary scholarships to Clintonville High School graduates pursuing accredited programs in auto, truck, or diesel technology.

The success of the 2016 event enabled two $1000 scholarships to be awarded to 2017 Clintonville graduates Bailey Berndt and Nicholas Kent for the 2017-2018 school year. Photo: Sara Mullen-Hornung
